Subject: October 7, 2013 Dispute Resolution Exchange of Information

Michael, I called you this morning regarding the exchange of information in the dispute resolution process, anticipating that the government shutdown may have affected your work status. Your phone message confirmed that it has. We are close to completing putting together the information we agreed to provide to EPA, but since EPA will not be in position to exchange information on October 7 as agreed, we could use some additional time as well. Accordingly, we intend to provide you with the more specific information supporting the requested 18 month extension on or about October 11, 2013. Please let me know (if you can) if this is acceptable.
